Council may or may not issue a permit with or without conditions and may also cancel a permit at any time. A permit may be issued for a period of up to 2 years and is not transferrable.

All permit applications will be subject to extensive assessment criteria.

3.4 TEMPORARY DWELLINGS

- (1) The owner or occupier of land must not, without a permit, occupy or allow any person to occupy a temporary dwelling on the land.
- (2) A permit may be granted for a period up to 2 years if Council is satisfied that:
 - (a) a current building permit and any required planning permit has been issued for a permanent residency on the site;
 - (b) the temporary dwelling complies with the requirements of the Building Act 1993 and is considered capable of providing for an adequate standard of habitation;
 - (c) a letter of support for approval of a temporary dwelling has been provided by a Relevant Building Surveyor;
 - (d) adequate sanitary facilities (toilet, shower, laundry trough and kitchen sink) are provided to the satisfaction of Council's Environmental Health Unit;
 - (e) the dwelling is connected to a reticulated water supply or has an alternate potable water supply;
 - (f) the dwelling is connected to reticulated electricity supply or has an alternate energy source;
 - (g) an approved wastewater treatment and disposal system has been installed to the satisfaction of Council's Environmental Health Officer that enables solid and liquid waste to be disposed of safely and without detriment to the environment; and
 - (h) within three (3) months of the issue of a Certificate of Occupancy for a permanent residence, the temporary dwelling must be decommissioned to the satisfaction of Council.

In determining whether to issue a permit, Council will also consider:

- (a) whether the temporary dwelling can be suitably sited and designed to adequately manage the potential risk from bushfire; and/or
 - (b) whether the issuing of a permit will have a detrimental impact on neighbouring properties.
- (3) Council may grant an extension of time for an existing temporary dwelling permit, for a maximum period of 12 months, in circumstances where substantial progress has been made toward the completion of the permanent dwelling and the necessary Building Permit and Planning Permit remain in place for the permanent residence.
